CONTENT CREATORS - BLOGGERS - FULL TIME RV FAMILY

ABOUT US

We are the Pambuka family, Malvin, Chelsea, Eden, Levi and Titus. The word Kufamba means travel from Malvin's home country of Zimbabwe. We are a full-time rv family, content creators, bloggers and rv experts. We love to encourage families to be intentional by going outside and exploring with their kids. We are always looking for places to hike, swim, bike or play. We love to educate families about rving and how they can do it too! We love to work with brands that fit into our travels and adventures. We have 37K+ Instagram followers @kufamba_thetravelingtribe.
